

Today you are going to be planning and writing a native american style myth

Watch and listen

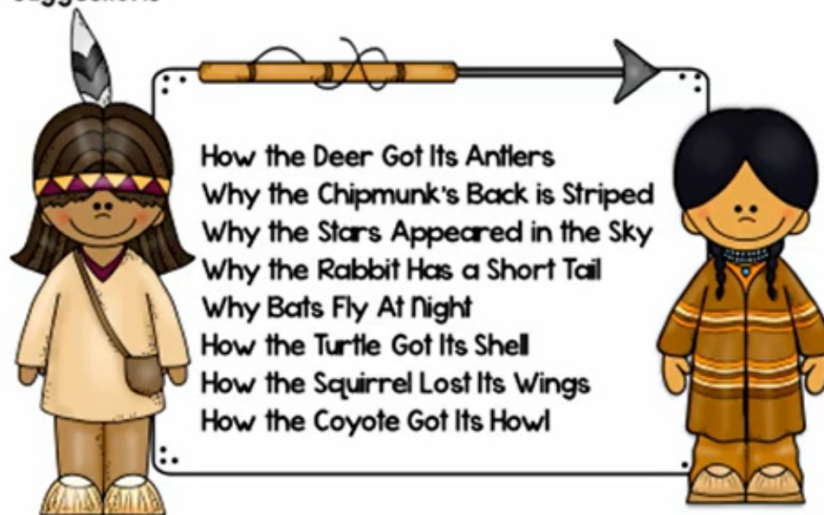

<https://safeyoutube.net/w/dK8J>

Write Your Own Legend

Native Americans would tell stories to each other as a way to explain certain things in nature. Now it's your turn! Create your own Native American legend to explain why something is the way it is.

Here are a few suggestions:

Complete the graphic organizer on the next slide with the important characters and events that you would like to include in your story.

Or you may have your own idea

Question:

Characters:

Setting:

Problem/Challenge:

Answer/Explanation:

© 2017, The Classroom Nook. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

Now plan your myth on an S plan

Now have a go and writing your myth.

Think about the ones you have read and use the style to base yours on.

Either write this as one piece of writing or as a story board/comic strip.

