Thinking about a career in Secondary Teaching?

Join Inspiring Future Teachers HISP for a series of free, online events designed to help you explore your route into teaching - especially if it's something you've been thinking about for a while.

These sessions are perfect for:

- Career changers, graduates, support staff, or anyone passionate about working with young people in secondary education
- Those looking for clear, supportive guidance on how to get started

Each session includes:

- A short presentation at the start of each hour
- A live Q&A with experienced secondary teachers and programme leads — your chance to ask questions and hear real insights

Whether you're ready to apply or just exploring your options, we'd love to welcome you online.

We'll send you the login details closer to the time.
