

Tuesday 16th June

Read 'The Den' then before you answer the questions check the meanings of the vocabulary shown below. You can write a definition in your book. You can use a dictionary.

The Den

Vocabulary - instinctively, marinating, lord, peasant, intent, furrowed, limping, encrusted, flushing, plaits, authoritative, tendrils, infuriated, cannibals, grudgingly, foliage, intruders

Read

1) On p.20 how does Fred try to stop Max crying? (1 mark)

Interpret

2) On p.22, Lila and Con disagree. Who do you think is right? Explain your thoughts. (2 marks)

3) On pages 25-28, what clues are there that the den has not been visited for a long time? (2 marks)

Choice

4) Explain one way the author has shown us how different the characters are from each other. (2 marks)

Challenge - draw a labelled diagram of the den with descriptions from the book.