LO: To Write the battle scene and ending to a story

To start the battle, Arrow shot Smithea with her sturdy bow and arrow. Smithea, not used to being attacked, cried out in pain, anger was welling up inside her so she started to bite Arrow with a force as good as a crocodile. This made Arrow scream but she was not going to give up. She flies up to Smithea and sits on her neck holding on for dear life as Smithea thrashes and lashes out, trying to get Arrow off her. Finally Arrow gets thrown off Smithea. That was it! Arrow curses Smithea with such a powerful spell the horrible monster dropped dead onto the hard, wooden floor. As Arrow came out of the great hall the village started congratulating her and one person told her that the king had died and she was going to be queen! They danced and celebrated all night long and peace was in the land again.

The End

Arrow will return
