

Maths Homework

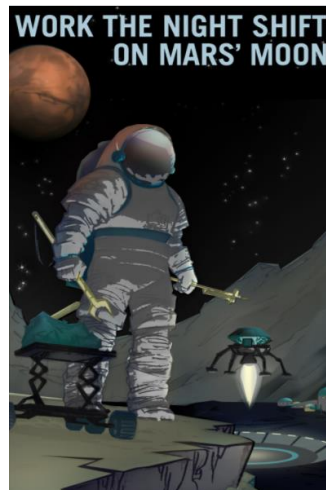

Set 15.11.17-Due in 20.11.17.

Be A Martian!

Mars needs YOU! In the future, Mars will need all kinds of explorers, farmers, surveyors, teachers . . . but most of all YOU!

Next week we will be turning our telescopes towards Mars!

One day it is hope that humans will be sent to Mars. This will probably happen in your life time. Do you have the skills needed to be one of the exploders that the space agencies will need?

There are more of these posters at

Your homework is to choose one of the jobs and say what qualities you think you need apply?

Look at the information on

https://www.esa.int/esaKIDSen/SEM6TIWJD1E_LifeinSpace_0.html

Either create a poster or write a letter to the ESA or NASA persuading them you are the astronaut they are looking for.
