

Writing week 6, activity 3

This is Red Riding Hood's Granny. You might remember her from when she came to visit our school?

Useful describing words:

- Angry expression
- Frown
- Furrowed brow
- Arms waving
- Rolling pin
- Curled hair
- Head scarf tied under chin
- Spectacles
- Flowery blouse
- Buttons
- Pleated skirt
- Pointed boots

Fronted Adverbials:

When?

Where?

How?

Most of the time, She can often be found, Usually, Sometimes, On occasion, During the day, When she...	On her head, In one hand, Perched on her nose, Around her waist, On her feet,	With an angry cry, With incredible energy, Balancing on one leg, With her arms in the air,
--	---	---

Using the useful describing words and the Fronted adverbials, create at least 5 sentences that describe Granny.

Here is an example:

She can often be found, waving a rolling pin in the air in order to frighten wolves away.

Write your sentences neatly in your exercise book.

Harder: Include interesting word choices and conjunctions.

Easier: Use the writing frame to finish the sentences.

