

Aim : To write a list poem describing sweets.

Skills we will use...

- Adjectives / Expanded noun phrases
- Nouns
- Verbs
- Onomatopoeia
- Alliteration
- Poetry

Warm-up

Can you think of an adjective to go with each sweet which shows alliteration?
(starts with the same sound)

Juicy jelly babies

_____ lolly pops

_____ sherbet

_____ candy floss

"Word Waiter" - Sweets
Nouns (types of sweets)	Adjectives (describing sweets)	Onomatopoeia (word from a sound) jelly babies	delicious	swoosh smarties	tasty	whoosh
lolly pops	juicy	jingle white chocolate mice	mouth-watering	jangle sherbet lemons	chewy	splash popping candy	heavenly	giggle candy floss	fluffy	click candy canes	scrumptious	flutter cola bottles	tempting	fizz fried eggs	delectable	whizz marshmallows	sticky	thump flying saucers	multi-coloured	drizzle liquorice	luscious	chatter humblebugs	delightful	whisper millions	wondrous	squish chocolate bars	velvety	honk strawberry laces	sticky	buzz bubble gum	stretchy	crack gob stoppers	crunchy	zoom sherbet pips	glorious	bang alphabet sweets	sugary	fizzle toffee	giant	squish
caramel	creamy	crunch
m & m s	crisp

We can then add a word from the final column of our Word Waiter from yesterday.

Juicy jelly babies jiggle gently

We can now make a list poem of all the amazing things that may happen when the sweet shop comes to life. To help the children to get started, you may like to begin:

When the lights go out,
the sweet shop comes to life...

..for when the lights go out
The sweet shop comes to life.

Look at the WAGOLLS on the next page

Green pen your work when it is finished. We will be writing a best copy tomorrow.

Examples...

The Sweet Shop

When the lights go out,
the sweet shop comes to life... fizzy flying saucers flutter as fluffy candy floss flip-flops and falls, crunchy candies clank into cool curtsying cola cubes, silky smarties swoosh and slide through a scrumptious spray of sprinkles, luscious lollies laugh lazily at the juicy jelly jangling, mouthwatering mints mingle whilst delectable donuts dance, pink popping candy parties as heavenly Haribo hiccup and howl at the honourable honking humbugs, bright, brilliant bottles belch, ginormous gobstoppers glare, rocking refreshers rumble and grumble as pristine popcorn pirouettes...
...for when the lights go out,
the sweet shop comes to life.

The Sweet Shop by Archie Thomas

When the lights go out,
the sweet shop comes to life...
smooth sprinkles spray,
rich rings wriggle,
brilliant balloons belch, amicable Easter eggs thud, syrupy Smarties sprinkle, yum yum in my tum Boosts boing, delicious floating chocolate flutter, comfy candy clings,
lovely Love Hearts loop, brilliant bottles of fizz bloop, delightful donuts drop, spicy Mars bars mumble and grumble, fluffy, floating chocolate flutters, juicy candy chatters,
...for when the lights go out,
the sweet shop comes to life.

