

Writing Week 4, activity 2

Now, to see if you can apply what you know about using fronted adverbials, we would like you to write a paragraph of narrative (story) description about Charlie waking up on a cold morning. Use the picture and your work from activity 1 to help you.

Before you start, it might help to label the picture with everything you can see and your ideas, I have started doing this below:

Remember to include fronted adverbials in your writing to show you understand them.

When? Where? How?

Do your writing in your exercise book.

You can use my starter, or your own:

One frosty, freezing morning, Charlie woke up and peered out of the front door.

Harder: Have you included a range of conjunctions? Expanded noun phrases?

Support: Say each sentence out loud before you write it.
